

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF GRANT FUNDS

The Guam Economic Development Authority (GEDA) is hereby providing public notice of the availability of grant funds.

GEDA continues to encourage recipients of its Qualifying Certificate ("QC") Program to give back to our local community. QC program beneficiary Century Insurance Company is generously funding through its QC #250 an annual grant of $5,000.00 to be used to support youth sports programs in the southern district of Guam.

General Grant Criteria

1. Applicants must be an organized youth sports program or team located in the southern district of Guam.
2. Exception to #1 above will be made on a case-to-case basis with the approval of the QC Beneficiary.
3. Grant request must be made for a (1.) specific purpose (i.e. league fees) or (2.) specific purchase (i.e. team uniforms) and must be identified in the request letter.
4. GEDA will not consider more than one grant request from the same organization or team in a 12-month period.

Any organized youth sports teams located in the southern district of Guam who are interested in this grant program may contact GEDA at the following:
